

Suction Cups for Packaging

These suction cups are characterized by a robust body and a soft sealing lip that molds to the shape of the packaging. The suction cups in the packaging industry are either made of the wear-resistant materials Elastodur and PVC or silicone, meeting FDA guidelines. This means these suction cups can be used for handling primary as well as secondary packaging.

Suitability for Industry Specific Applications

Applications

-

Suction Cups for Packaging

Design

-

Product Highlights

-

